MY STORY

Mohawkmomma Studio provides sustainable, stunning soul care–designed stationery + gifts. We make the journaling + gifting journey peaceful + playful.

All paper + gifts come with a guided experience that assists you to come home to amplify your peace + play in childlike wonder.

We are based in Stone Mountain, Georgia.

MOHAWKMOMMA STUDIO BOUTIQUE
YOU'RE BUYING MORE THAN JUST PAPER + GIFTS...
YOU'RE AMPLIFYING YOUR LEGACY THROUGH PEACE + PLAY VIBES!

Hello! I'm Andrea "Pastor Angie" Palmer, founder, owner, and Chief Empathy Embodiment Officer (CEEEO). As a neurodiverse mother of 8+ neurodiverse kids, I find solace + creativity in storytelling using poetry, coloring, and doodling. Childhood memories highlight my love for nature, pen pals, and the color peach. It all fuels my passion for pastoral care. In 2016, I resigned from serving on staff to birth my soul care stationery + gifting studio.

My studio emphasizes journaling + coloring – an act of grace we gift ourselves to amplify peace. It represents a soul care respite that promotes luxury + simplicity + sustainability. My unique touch? Botanicals + Black women/girls.

OUR MISSION

To awaken + assist writers + speakers to amplify their peace through coloring + journaling.
We are home of the color + journal experience™.

Sustainability for people + planet is a high priority—all of the stationery and gifts are eco-friendly. And, our social impact is focused on supporting women and girls marginalized by human trafficking through the mission of Beauty Boxx.

I welcome your business whether for resale purposes or group gift-giving celebrations!
