

"It's grace to give TO yourself as much as you give OF yourself."

OUR VISION

To function as a beacon of empowerment financially and spiritually to marginalized women writers, artisans, shalom-makers and beauty conduits in the world.

OUR MISSION is to provide soul care and self-care resources and publishing services to women who write. OUR WHY is to pastor and teach them to give to themselves as much as they give of themselves. This mission is our vehicle to financially and spiritually invest in marginalized women.

Core Values: Truth. Curiosity. Self-Care. Creativity. Courage. Freedom.

These three—vision, mission and core values—keep our goals clear and clean with narrow focus and aligned decisions.
